

DESCRIPTION

You don't need to travel back to the 60's for flower power! All you need is a bouquet of fake flowers and some glitter to create this rad ring!

MATERIALS

- 1 fake flower with stem
- glitter glue pens
- ruler

DIRECTIONS

1. Separate one flower from the bouquet, making sure the stem is at least 3 inches long.
2. Separate flower from stem.
3. Bend the stem into a long L shape, making sure the short part of the L is 1/2 inches long.
4. Curve the remaining stem into a ring shape. Paint the flower with glitter glue. Put blue squiggles on the petals and silver in the middle.
