MATERIALS

- 6 wiggly eyes (28mm)
- 2 sheets "Stick-It-Felt" (1 black, 1 pink)
- 13 paperclips
- scissors
- glue
- ruler

DIRECTIONS

1. Turn the pink piece of Stick-It felt over so that the white paper backing is facing up.
2. Trace one of the wiggly eyes onto the back of pink felt six times and cut out all six circles.
3. Peel off the backing of one of the pink felt circles and place a paperclip on the felt with one side hanging over the edge. Place another paperclip above the first paperclip, creating another loop on the opposite side.
4. Place a wiggly eye on top of the paperclips and pink felt. Press firmly to ensure a good stick! Next slip a paperclip onto one of the loops of the wiggly eye you've just created.
5. Slip a piece of felt under the paperclip you just linked, making sure to create a loop like before. Repeat step 4.
6. Repeat steps 3-5 four times for a total of six wiggly eyes! You can wear your bracelet as is and jump ahead to learn how to make a clasp to hold your bracelet together OR you can complete the following steps to give your bracelet a full make-over!
7. To turn your wiggly eyed bracelet into a lady: Trace and cut out 3 more pink felt circles. Cut these circles in half.
8. Peel off the backs and stick each half circle to a wiggly eye, creating a hot pink eyelid.
9. For the eyelashes, cut strips of black Stick-It felt .5in wide and 1 in long (or as long as the pink half circles). Peel off the backs and fold each rectangle over leaving a small patch of the sticky back exposed.
10. Create some flirty lashes by cutting a fringe on the doubled-over edge of the felt. Make sure not to cut all the way through! End your cut where the sticky felt begins.
11. Repeat steps 8-10 for all the wiggly eyes on your bracelet.
12. For clasp: Take the outside of a paperclip and fold it in half, creating a hook.
13. Connect this hook to one side of your bracelet & give yourself a wink in the mirror for a job well done!
