www.activitytv.com

DESCRIPTION

Join Magician Ryan Oakes as he teaches you how you can crack your nose! As Ryan cups his nose in his hand a "CRACK" is heard. Ewwwww! It's gross out magic!! You will be sure to totally gross out your friends!

MATERIALS

- Your hands and nose

DIRECTIONS

1. Tell your audience that you are going to break your nose in front of them. Place your hands up towards your face with your thumbs pointing in towards your mouth.
2. Reach over to the bridge of your nose and feel around with your fingers to make the audience think you're looking for the right bones.
3. Close your hands together around your nose in a praying formation. Your thumbs and mouth should be hidden in your hands and out of view now.
4. Now that they're out of view, take your thumbs, open your mouth, and place your thumbnails up against your teeth.
5. As you pretend to push your nose from side to side with your fingers to break it, scrape your thumbnails against your teeth to create a popping or breaking sound. This may take some practice to get the timing right, but once you do, your audience will hear the pops as they watch you push your nose around and think that you are actually breaking it! To really sell it, squint your eyes shut and pretend that it hurts.
