

DESCRIPTION

See man's best friend come to life fold by fold as Origami aficionado, Michael LaFosse, teaches this terrific project that'll have you barking for more. It's so easy you'll have a whole pack of pups in no time!

MATERIALS

- paper in a diamond shape, white side up

DIRECTIONS

1. Place paper in a diamond shape white side up.
2. Fold bottom corner up to top and unfold.
3. Rotate so fold crease is vertical.
4. Fold bottom to top again.
5. Flip paper to colored side.
6. Roll match and fold bottom edge to top and open.
7. Rotate so most recent crease is vertical.
8. Roll match and fold bottom edge to top again but don't open.
9. Pick paper up so it folds along creases in a tulip shape.
10. Push two sides together on each side and flatten.
11. Paper should be a small diamond with opening on top.
12. Fold top layer to bottom corner, color will change.
13. Fold bottom corner up a bit to make a mini triangle.
14. Flip paper over.
15. Fold paper in half like you're closing a book.
16. Hold on to bottom near tail and top corner of tail pull up and out and press it flat.
17. Hold long vertical edge and fold straight up to top fold on back.
18. Then stand edges and find the middle fold.
19. Find middle folds corners and push it open and down flat so that a triangle comes down as a face.
20. Fold the tip up like a nose and fold the ears to look like your favorite dog.
